The Board of Directors of the Marshalltown Community School District is dedicated to excellence and equity in public education. As elected trustees of public education within the Marshalltown Community School District, members of the Board of Directors are advocates for excellence and continuous improvement in all aspects of the delivery of educational services to students. The Board of Directors is accountable to the public both in its fiduciary duty for oversight of public resources and the status of schools. The Board of Directors holds a belief that all students and district personnel are worthy and merit high expectations and appropriate learning environments.
